In-class exercise (You may discuss/work with other students)

1. Please design a website that has the following feature:
   I. Website that has comment with your name and your student ID on it
   II. Has a header section that contains the website title: Website Design 2014
   III. Has a body section that has:
      i. Level 2 header with text "Exercise One"
      ii. One link that directs to http://www.ccu.edu.tw
      iii. Another link that directs to: http://www.mis.ccu.edu.tw
      iv. A mail link links to your CCU email account
      v. Please download 5 image from google website and display them on your website, whereas:
         1. Image1 resides on its current directory with full size.
         2. Image2 resides on its parent directory with 1/3 of its original size
         3. Image3 resides on its sub directory with 1/2 of its original size
         4. Image4 with full size and full path specified
         5. Image5 (CCU logo) with its link direct to http://www.ccu.edu.tw. Once the user clicks on this link, it will open the linked document in a new window or tab
      vi. Have this equation: 10^2 x 10^2 = 10^4 followed by a horizontal line
      vii. Have an unordered lists with 2 items in it, whereas:
         1. First item contains another ordered list with 3 items in it
         2. Second item contains another unordered list with 4 items in it